An aerial photograph of Dubai, United Arab Emirates, showcasing the city's skyline and infrastructure. The Burj Khalifa, the world's tallest building, stands prominently in the center. To its left is the Burj Dubai. The foreground is dominated by a complex network of multi-lane highways and overpasses, with cars visible on the roads. The city is densely packed with modern skyscrapers and commercial buildings. The sky is a deep blue with scattered white clouds. A large, curved yellow graphic element sweeps across the right side of the image. At the top and bottom center, there are decorative horizontal bars with blue, green, and yellow segments.
